It is common knowledge that more than thirty crore of our population are below the poverty line, without proper food, shelter, education and employment, according to the National Sample Survey Organ-

I call upon my sisters and brothers to join hands and stand up for communal amit, secularism, fraternity and human solidarity. Let us build a strong, united, democratic, just and prosperous secular India. Let us also remember that there is no compulsion in religion in the world. We are the one family of One God.

V.G. Santhosham

In statement Santhosham said, "Poet Bharathiar said let us dance and sing we have attained freedom. That free not come very easy. The people of united Indian shed their blood, and lost their life and got us independence.

Freedom was achieved because all the people from the Himalayas to Kumari worked together to free the country from the tyrannical hands of foreign rule.

It was headed by Mahatma Gandhi. Leaders like Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, Kokile, Dadabai Navroj, Rajaram Mohan Roy, fought and got us Freedom struggle never goes in vain. Today we are living independently. But I pray that today's youth should think of the people who fought for freedom. Youth should live with patriotism, love, non-violence and tolerance.

Hoisting a Balanced Flag..!

I stood at attention as the strains of our beloved National Anthem ended, and the National Flag was hoisted. I watched as those around me walked away for their light refreshments, and then heard voices around me, "It's not balanced!"

"Yes, sadly it isn't!" said another familiar voice.

"Of course it is!" I snarled without turning around, "The pole is balanced. The flag is also balanced. See how it waves in the wind!"

"It's not pole or flag, we speak about!" said the first voice gently, "It's the colours! They aren't balanced İ turned around slowly and realised I stood alone, next to the just hoisted flag. "I hear your voices!" I whispered, "But can see no one!" "We are here for your flag hoisting!" said the first voice. "And you said there was no balance, and I said there is!" I replied. "But there isn't anymore!" said the second voice, sounding even more sadder, "Just look at your flag!" I looked and could see nothing wrong, "When we got it made!" said the first voice, "The saffron, white and green were equally balanced!"

"What we can see, you can't!" said the second voice, "And the imbalance which may sound good to some, and may also have brought politicians to power, will soon create huge problems!"

"Only an equal balance of the three colours will keep the country stable!" the two voices said together.

I looked hard at the flag and saw how right they were. The shade on top was slowly spreading, but as it spread down, it was causing hurt to the colours below, who were weeping silently!'

"Can you see what is happening when one colour tries to grab the whole flag?" asked the first voice.
